The IRS requires that we collect tax numbers and report sales. A W-9 will be included with your acceptance letter and must be presented at check-in before you can set up.

On the back of this form, please describe and list the approximate number of items that you will be selling.

Description, including sizes, of display props (Please be specific. Items that are too large or visually distracting may have to be modified. If you have physical limitations, please describe any special requests that you might have.):

Volunteer times will be assigned. Please list the days, times that you are NOT available.

This application does not guarantee that you will be accepted into the Boutique. The Boutique chairs reserve the right to deny entry to anyone who fails to meet the obligations listed in the Boutique Guidelines. We have limited space and will be accepting applications on a first come/first served basis. We will let you know by the end of September if you have been accepted and what your boutique ID will be.

WAIVER: Every reasonable precaution will be taken to safeguard art works while at the Fine Art of Fiber. The Illinois Quilter's Guild, North Suburban NeedleArts Guild, and the Chicago Botanic Garden, its staff and volunteers are not responsible for accidental loss, damage of any kind, and/or theft. Payment will be from receipts only. I have read and understand the above rules and I have read and understand the rules listed in the Boutique Guidelines document. Please remember that you may only use standardized FAOF price tags and IDs will be assigned.
